individual cases where necessary.

3 The appointments for which the Probationers were recruited in August 1944 are meant for Gazetted ~~appointments~~ cadres in the Deptt. The comptroller, however, refers to the G.O. No. 2463-S/ CB 120-43-1 dated 12-1-1944, in which the Probationers for the Accounts Deptt were termed as "Gazetted Probationers" and those for the Police, Law Records & Commerce etc were treated as non-Gazetted. In this connection it is submitted that in the Accounts Deptt, Probationers are taken for "~~higher~~ "Upper Subordinate Service" ie. for being appointed as "Superintendents" of Section which does not come under the category of Gazetted officers and for Gazetted cadre ie. Asst Comptrollers. As there were already Probationers in the Accounts Deptt meant for "Upper Subordinate Service" the Probationers who were subsequently recruited and who were meant for being appointed as Asst Comptrollers were designated as "Gazetted Probationers" with a view to distinguish the latter from the former.

1 As the terms "Gazetted officer" has not been defined and as the Probationers in question (those recruited in 1946) are all meant to occupy Gazetted cadre in the Dept, wherein it is necessary to draw any distinction amongst them as "Gazetted" and "Non-Gazetted" is a point for consideration.
